

diagnostic services

STRI Australia provides a comprehensive range of analytical and diagnostic services which are designed to meet the diverse requirements of the turf and landscape industries. These services can be used to solve specific problems, as part of routine monitoring programs, for evaluating rootzone media for construction projects, and for quality control purposes.

Soil chemical analysis

- pH, salts and organic matter
- Major and minor nutrients

Leaf tissue analysis

- Major and minor nutrients

Water analysis

- Irrigation suitability
- Microbiological testing and algal scans

Biological analysis

- Disease diagnosis
- Nematode counts
- Mite testing
- Insect and weed identification

Soil physical analysis

- Construction sand suitability
- USGA putting green suitability
- Bunker sand testing
- Cricket wicket soil analysis
- Moisture release curves
- Raingarden and biofilter material testing
- Topsoil testing for landscape projects
- Compliance testing to AS4419, Melbourne Water and client provided specifications

Call us on 03 9558 6514, email us at info@striaustralia.com.au or visit our website striaustralia.com.au

